AI Selldown Spurs Rotation Into Defensives

Market Review

MY: The local bourse extended its losses, weighed down by heavyweights PMETAL and MAYBANK. Market breadth remained negative, with 828 losers outpacing 328 gainers. Sector-wise, REITs (+1.57%) outperformed amid a rotation into defensive sector, while Technology (-4.82%) was the weakest performer.

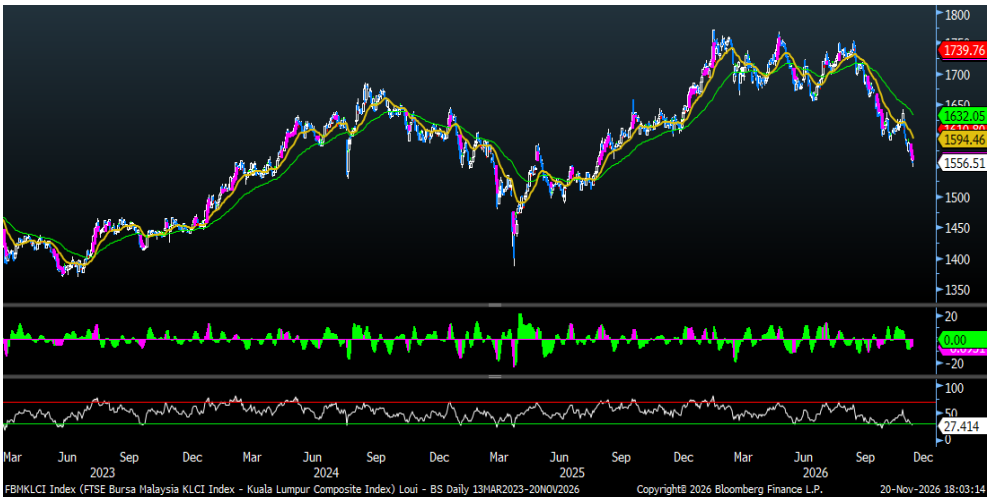

US: Wall Street plunged Friday as technology, industrials and materials dragged the Nasdaq down 5.28%, S&P 500 down 3.69% and Dow down 1.93% to a six-month low. Nvidia, Micron and AMD tumbled over 13%, lifting the VIX 26% to a 52-week high, while UnitedHealth and Walmart cushioned losses.

The Day Ahead

US: Following the Nasdaq's sharp weekly decline amid renewed concerns over AI valuations, regulatory scrutiny and post-IPO volatility in Anthropic, we expect selling pressure on Wall Street to persist during the Thanksgiving-shortened trading week, with investors potentially rotating into defensive sectors such as Health Care and Consumer Staples. Stock-wise, we favour Johnson & Johnson (JNJ), supported by its pharmaceutical pipeline and progress in robotic surgery. We also favour Biogen (BIIB), supported by developments in its neurological treatment pipeline. Lastly, Yum! Brands (YUM) offers defensive appeal following its 3Q26 earnings performance.

MY: Tracking the sharp sell-off on Wall Street, particularly the weakness in Nvidia amid reports of regulatory scrutiny, we expect the FBM KLCI to start the week on a softer note, with investors likely rotating into defensive counters. Stock-wise, we favour KPJ, supported by (i) its ongoing hospital network expansion and (ii) its medical tourism initiatives, including a new 33-bed international ward and a partnership with an Indonesian bank. We also favour RAMSSOL following its reported record 3Q26 net profit of RM9.35m (+25.4% YoY), while PANTECH's exposure to higher-margin stainless steel fittings and US data centre demand could provide some resilience amid near-term market volatility.

FBMKLCI Technical Outlook

YTL Power International Bhd (YTLPOWR) has denied allegations that its data centres in Johor were involved in diverting Nvidia chips to Chinese customers, describing reports linking the group to the controversy as speculative and unsubstantiated. The group said its data centre business provides co-location services, including space, power, cooling and connectivity to multiple global customers, including US-based hyperscalers, and that its operations comply with Malaysian laws and US trade controls. It added that the US Department of Commerce's new interim final rule on remote access to advanced semiconductors would not affect its co-location services, as the rule focuses on GPU importers and providers of computing services to designated countries including China, mainland and Hong Kong, Russia, Iran and Iraq. (The Edge)

MN Holdings Bhd (MNHLDG) has secured a RM1.12bn engineering, procurement, construction and commissioning (EPCC) contract for two large-scale solar photovoltaic facilities in Kemaman, Terengganu, through a consortium led by its wholly-owned unit MN Utilities Engineering Sdn Bhd. The group's largest contract win to date and its maiden entry into the large-scale solar segment covers a combined 400 megawatts alternating current (MWac) under the LSS Petra 5+ Programme, with China Railway 11th Bureau Group Electric Engineering Co Ltd and DB Energy Sdn Bhd as the other consortium members. The projects are targeted for completion in 2028. (The Edge)

RHB Bank Bhd (RHBBANK) has had its financial institution rating upgraded to AAA/Stable/P1 from AA1/Positive/P1 by RAM Ratings. The upgrade extends to its arms RHB Islamic Bank Bhd and RHB Investment Bank Bhd, as well as the long-term ratings of RHB Bank's sukuk and debt facilities. RAM Ratings said the upgrade reflects the group's strengthened funding profile, strong capitalisation, asset quality and sustained profitability, following a positive outlook issued in April. (The Edge)

ITMAX System Bhd (ITMAX) has established an Islamic Medium-Term Notes (IMTN) programme and an Islamic Commercial Papers (ICP) programme with a combined nominal limit of RM1bn. The smart city integrated system and solutions provider lodged the documents for the sukuk programmes with the Securities Commission Malaysia via its wholly-owned unit ITMAX Capital Sdn Bhd, its special purpose funding vehicle. Proceeds will be used for the group's shariah-compliant general business, shariah-compliant commodities, and refinancing of existing and future financing obligations. (The Edge)

Leong Hup International Bhd's (LHI) net profit for the third quarter ended Sept 30, 2026 (3QFY2026) edged up 0.73% year-on-year (y-o-y) to RM130.09m, as higher raw material and finance costs offset revenue growth. Quarterly revenue increased 11.28% y-o-y to RM2.46bn. For the nine months ended Sept 30, 2026 (9MFY2026), net profit rose 7.96% y-o-y to RM346.79m, while revenue increased 5.76% to RM6.93bn. (The Edge)

7-Eleven Malaysia Holdings Bhd's (SEM) net profit for 3QFY2026 more than tripled y-o-y to RM6.53m, driven by stronger convenience store sales. Quarterly revenue increased 17.91% y-o-y to RM938.36m. For 9MFY2026, net profit fell 40.3% y-o-y to RM19.53m, while revenue rose 12.85% to RM2.66bn. (The Edge)

Velesto Energy Bhd's (VELESTO) net profit for 3QFY2026 fell 58.9% y-o-y to RM20.61m, weighed by lower drilling rig charter rates and the absence of a larger cost provision reversal recorded a year earlier. Quarterly revenue declined 9.5% y-o-y to RM217.24m. It declared a special dividend of two sen per share, payable on Dec 22. For 9MFY2026, net profit fell 68% y-o-y to RM49m, while revenue declined 16.6% to RM554.62m. (The Edge)

Aeon Co (M) Bhd's (AEON) net profit for 3QFY2026 fell 36.7% y-o-y to RM9.25m, as a sharp increase in tax expenses offset higher revenue from its retail and property management businesses. Quarterly revenue increased 1.5% y-o-y to RM1.01bn. For 9MFY2026, net profit rose 12.8% y-o-y to RM107.17m, while revenue edged up to RM3.25bn. (The Edge)

Cnergenz Bhd's (CNERGEN) net profit for 3QFY2026 more than quadrupled y-o-y to RM7.64m on record revenue, driven by higher sales of integrated solutions for surface-mount technology (SMT) manufacturing lines. Quarterly revenue surged 296.5% y-o-y to a record RM104.02m. It declared an interim dividend of one sen per share, payable on Dec 16. For 9MFY2026, net profit jumped 414.5% y-o-y to RM15.64m, while revenue surged 236.7% to RM219.67m. (The Edge)

Sarawak Plantation Bhd's (SWKPLNT) net profit for 3QFY2026 rose 18.11% y-o-y to RM36.76m, as higher palm product prices more than offset lower sales volumes. Quarterly revenue increased 10.6% y-o-y to RM154.49m. It declared a third interim dividend of 7.5 sen per share, payable on Jan 21, 2027. For 9MFY2026, net profit rose 22.68% y-o-y to RM98.9m, while revenue was flat at RM406.97m. (The Edge)

IOI Properties Group Bhd (IOIPG) has completed its acquisition of Shenton 101 Pte Ltd, the company that owns Singapore's Shenton House, from its group chief executive officer and major shareholder Datuk Lee Yeow Seng, three years after his private purchase of the property raised potential conflict-of-interest concerns. The acquisition followed payment of a nominal S$1 and settlement of S$217.06m in shareholder advances, and involves assuming Shenton 101's S$376.23m borrowings as at July 31, 2026. The group plans to redevelop the property into a 35-storey mixed-use development featuring Grade A offices, a 165-room luxury hotel, retail space and parking, with works to begin in early 2027 and completion expected in 2031 at the earliest. (The Edge)

PIE Industrial Bhd (PIE) has secured a US$99.82m (RM410.6m) order to assemble artificial intelligence (AI) server-related products for data centres. The order was won from an unnamed overseas multinational customer in the AI server industry, and is expected to be fulfilled progressively in the financial years ending Dec 31, 2026 (FY2026) and FY2027. The company said the order is expected to carry relatively low gross margins, with its contribution to gross profit and earnings minimal relative to its revenue. (The Edge)

Manulife Holdings Bhd (MANULFE) has appointed Harshal Ashok Shah as its group chief executive officer, effective immediately. The 47-year-old, previously chief marketing and experience design officer at Manulife Financial Asia Ltd, will succeed Vibha Hamsi Coburn, who is taking on a new role in another territory, and will also serve as chief executive of Manulife Insurance Bhd, the life insurer's main local operating arm. Before joining Manulife, Shah held senior positions at AIA Group, including as chief marketing officer of AIA Korea, as well as leadership roles at Aegon and Citibank. (The Edge)

Amazon.com (AMZN) is in advanced talks to acquire artificial intelligence startup Decart for approximately $7.5 billion, a deal that could be finalized as early as next week to bolster compute efficiency across Amazon Web Services and reduce reliance on Nvidia (NVDA) chips, according to Financial Times reporting. The San Francisco based developer of Lucy and Oasis—which raised $300 million at a $4 billion valuation in May 2026 with backing from Nvidia alongside Sequoia Capital, Benchmark, and Radical Ventures—is an early adopter of Amazon's Trainium3 chips and previously drew acquisition interest from Anthropic (ANT) around $6 billion before due diligence ended without a deal. (Big Go Finance)

Zscaler (ZS) announced collaborations with Anthropic (ANT) and Mistral to advance enterprise AI security and counter AI driven threats, integrating Anthropic's Claude Mythos 5.1 into Endpoint AI Security to power Exploit Paths and pairing Security for AI with Mistral across its sovereign Zero Trust Exchange in Europe ahead of an AI agent security launch scheduled for December 9, 2026, according to a company press release.
